

Community Group Presentations

The Fire department is available to do fire safety presentations for various community groups. In the past the fire department has presented at everything from senior citizen groups to the boy scouts. The community group can work with the fire department to tailor the event to their specific needs. This can include presentations by the fire department anything from fire extinguisher operations to smoke detectors to fire escape routes in the home to cooking safety or whatever other needs your group may have.